The Yearbook Commercial Arbitration continues its longstanding commitment to serving as a primary resource for the international arbitration community with reporting on arbitral awards and court decisions applying the leading arbitration conventions, as well as on arbitration legislation and rules.

Volume XXXVIII (2013) includes:

- excerpts of arbitral awards made under the auspices of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce (SCC), the Cairo Regional Centre for International Commercial Arbitration (CRCICA), the Paris International Arbitration Chamber and the Commercial Arbitration Centre for the Cooperation Council for the Arab Gulf States (GCC Commercial Arbitration Centre);
- notes on new and amended arbitration rules, including references to their online publication;
- notes on recent developments in arbitration law and practice in Australia, Austria, Belgium, Canada, Cayman Islands, the People’s Republic of China, the Czech Republic, Hong Kong, Mexico, Montenegro, Myanmar, Nigeria, Pakistan, Romania, Russian Federation, São Tomé and Principe, Saudi Arabia, Ukraine and the United Kingdom;
- excerpts of 67 court decisions applying the 1958 New York Convention from 21 countries – including, for the first time, cases from Croatia, the Czech Republic, Jamaica and Lithuania – all indexed by subject matter and linked to the General Editor’s published commentaries on the New York Convention;
- an extensive Bibliography of recent books and journals on arbitration.

The Yearbook is edited by the International Council for Commercial Arbitration (ICCA), the world’s leading organization representing practitioners and academics in the field, with the assistance of the Permanent Court of Arbitration, The Hague. It is an essential tool for lawyers, business people and scholars involved in the practice and study of international arbitration.
